Minutes:

Item C39 - Construction Manager-at-Risk Master Plan Ranking

Frank Kendricks - President of Minority Contractors Association

Don Brown - concerned on the lack of minority participation in the process.

Sheryl McKinley - QB Construction - because they could not meet the bonding requirement, they went out of the county to partner with a company, the largest school building firm within the State, and they still did not get selected.

Earley McKinley, III - QB Construction - feels the short listing and ranking should be audio and video recorded.

HB Holmes - concerned on the lack of minority participation in the process.

Pastor Picket - Spoke in support of QB Construction and their attempts to work with the district.

Mrs. Fields commented that not knowing when the FBI investigation will come to fruition, the item cannot be tabled. The process was delayed for a time for revision, however there is a timing issue. The projects are funded through sales tax bonds that have a penalty if the projects are not complete by a certain date.

Don Wilson stated that the district cannot deny a specific vendor the right to place a bid due to an on-going investigation- the district would be open to legal battle.

Fred Murphy, Acting Assistant Superintendent of Facilities and Operations, stated that sales tax bonds funded the proposed projects and there are completion dates as early as November 1, 2010. Thirty-two companies applied for 4 projects.

Mrs. Sellers stated that the policy will be reviewed and changed where necessary.

Mr. Harris announced that the policy will be discussed at the second work session in June.

Mark Grey, Assistant Superintendent of Business Services, reported that the funds were borrowed in November, 2007 with a requirement that the funds be expended with 36 months.

Motion Minutes:

Mrs. Fields commented that morally she could not support Item C-39, Construction Manager-at-Risk Plan Ranking: Projects C-00273, Winter Haven Senior; C-00272, Auburndale Senior; and C-00274, Kathleen Senior; and C-00246, Boone Middle School. Even though the District has improved the selection process, she would prefer tabling the vote until after the FBI investigation is complete. She understood that it is not in the best interest to table the item due to bonding obligations.

Don Wilson, Attorney with Boswell and Dunlap, reported there is also a legal issue of denying a vendor the right to bid on a project when no charges have been filed debarring them from the process.

Public Comments Addressing Items Not on Agenda

67. Speakers

Minutes:

David Hand, parent - lack of education provided at Ben Hill Griffin Elementary. He would like his child to attend the Chain of Lakes Elementary or Garden Grove Elementary.

Marianne Capozziello - President of Polk Education Association, spoke on the proposed Health Insurance Benefits with cost of benefits so high staff will not access them. Dr. McKinzie announced that a Frequently Asked Questions document will be released soon to provide employees information on the proposed health plan.

Tony Blair - President of AFSCME, suggested a GAP Insurance be offered to help subsidize the out-of-pocket expenses with the higher cost of the health insurance. The 13 plans that have been reviewed are from the same company. He has a grave concern with the plan and the effect it will have on the chronic illness of our employees.

Mark Grey, Assistant Superintendent of Business Services, reported that health care is a national problem. It is the most expensive benefit offered to employees.

Adjournment

Meeting adjourned at 7:34 PM. Minutes were approved and attested this 9th day of June, 2009.

Frank J. O'Reilly, Chairman

Gail F. McKinzie, Ph. D., Superintendent
