61. R-61 SPEAKERS

Minutes:

Marianne Capozziello, President of Polk Education Association, asked the School Board to reject the tentative budget and begin again, reviewing it line by line.

Chair Fields requested Mark Grey, Assistant Superintendent of Business Services, to comment on the process used in developing the Tentative Budget. Mr. Grey reported these are estimates of what the fund balance is expected to be after the 2010-2011 accounting has been closed. The final budget will be submitted for a vote on September 6, 2011. He explained that certain categoricals may have rollover fund balances but are restricted for a specific purpose, i.e WorkForce Education.

Lee Littlefield, Polk Education Association, repeated Marianne's request to reject the proposed budget for a line-by-line review and then suggested a discussion be held on its impact on employees and the local economy.
